Look at the following questions. Do you know what the words in bold mean? Discuss your ideas and then answer the question.

- Do you have any shopping malls or boutique shops in your town /city?
- Do you enjoy going window shopping in your free time? Why(not)?

- Have you ever bought anything second hand? What are the advantages and disadvantages of buying second hand items?
- Have you ever got a bargain when you've been shopping? Or have you been ripped off before?

Shopping malls are big indoor shopping centres with a lot of different shops (usually shops that are part of a chain).

Boutique shops are small, independently owned shops.

If you take something back to a shop then you return it.

Second hand means something that is not new, but was owned before by someone else.

If you get a bargain then you paid a low price for something.

If you are ripped off then you pay a very high price for something which is not worth it.
