

11.24.2021. Students and teachers of the specialty "Agronomy" of the Atyrau Agrarian Technical College came and got acquainted with the scientific laboratory of water, soil and plants SWAPTEL ASU and received general information. He also got acquainted with the methods of laboratory work to study the composition of the soil in the future. That is, familiar with the process of analysis and manufacture of pH in the composition of the soil, patented electrification, hardness, foundation and petroleum products.

